Maternal-Fetal Medicine | Obstetrics & Gynecology

Los Angeles Fetal & Maternal Care Center

Dr. Steve Rad, MD, FACOG, is an expert specialist in OBGYN and subspecialist in Maternal & Fetal Medicine/High Risk Pregnancies. He is a Double Board-Certified Diplomate of the American Board of Obstetrics & Gynecology.

Dr. Rad completed medical school at David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA, Residency and Fellowship at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, and additional training at international fetal programs.

Dr. Rad is at the cutting-edge in his field and has earned numerous Top Doctor Awards. As an MFM subspecialist, he is among few physicians with expertise in advanced fetal ultrasound, early fetal anatomy and neuro-sonography.

Dr. Rad is especially passionate about taking care of women with the highest risk and complex pregnancies, often involving careful multidisciplinary care and delivery planning. Dr. Rad is Director of the Los Angeles Fetal & Maternal Care Center - with main office location at the prestigious Cedars-Sinai Medical Office Towers. He is on staff at multiple top medical centers in LA.

The Center is a comprehensive maternal-fetal diagnosis and treatment center. It's boutique style focuses on providing individualized, one-on-one care. The center focuses on the full spectrum of care from pre-pregnancy through pregnancy, delivery and beyond. Dr. Rad cares for women with normal as well as at-risk and high-risk pregnancies, and does deliveries too. Home ultrasound/prenatal care are also available. The center's Rainbow Clinic, one of a handful worldwide, focuses on women with prior pregnancy losses and stillbirths, one of Dr. Rad's biggest passions.

Dr. Rad looks forward to taking care of you and your family!
